

News

Jarrold Lyman
Director of Media
Yosemite Sierra Visitors Bureau
(559) 683-4636

Idle Hour Winery to host winter release party

Oakhurst, CA. – A popular winery along the Madera Wine Trail is holding their second annual Winter Release Party Jan 21 from noon until 5 pm.

Idle Hour Winery is located in Sierra Nevada foothills of Oakhurst, California. Adjacent to the Fresno River and attached to the eight-room Queen's Inn, Idle Hour Winery specializes in small-lot wines using sustainably grown grapes, native yeasts, gravity flow and other gentle methods. The result is wines that have earned numerous accolades and awards throughout the industry.

"We have put together a great new selection of wines for people to taste. It will be a great start to the new year," said Anna Marie dos Remedios, who owns Idle Hour Winery along with her partner Deb Payne.

"We will be offering new wines paired with some fabulous dishes for you to sample, with recipes chosen from celebrity guest author Jill Silverman Hough's wonderful cookbooks," she said.

The chef will also be on hand at the tasting to autograph copies of her well-known collection of recipes. She will also give a short talk designed to make food and wine pairing easy and approachable.

Entry is just $20 per person and includes wine/food tastings and a commemorative Idle Hour wine glass. Wine club members receive complimentary tickets for two.

RVP's are appreciated. To reserve your tickets, click the link.

<https://www.wineweb.com/scripts/secure/eventReservation.cfm?w=42514&seq=304>

In addition to the Queen's Inn, Sierra Sky Ranch Resort is offering a discounted rate of $89 to out of town guests who come for the release party that weekend.

For more information, call 559-683-8040.

-END-